

ABOUT KUALA LUMPUR

Malaysia is Located just north of the equator, Malaysia borders Thailand, Indonesia and Brunei, and has maritime boundaries with Indonesia, Singapore and the Philippines.

Malaysia's population is around 30.573 million in at present. Malaysia is a bubbling, bustling melting pot of races and religions where Malays, Indians, Chinese and many other ethnic groups live together in peace and harmony. Multiculturalism has not only made Malaysia a gastronomical paradise, it has also made Malaysia home to hundreds of colorful festivals. Malaysians love celebrating and socializing; the people are warm and friendly. Kuala Lumpur is the federal capital and most populous city in Malaysia. There are number of frequent flights to and from all major international airports of the world.

RESEARCH COLLABORATION

APIAR is keen to build research collaboration with academics of proven research backgrounds. We welcome academics who have already published in top-ranked journals to submit their research proposal (500 words maximum) for further consideration. Ideally, research problem(s) and methodology as well as theoretical and practical contributions, should all be mentioned in the proposal. We are looking forward to receiving research proposals from top-notch researchers.

APIAR SCHOLARSHIPS:

APIAR is delighted to announce a competition for best papers.

RESEARCH

ASIA PACIFIC HANDBOOK OF CONTEMPORARY
RESEARCH

Vol. 1 2017
ISBN: 978-0-64811-7-285

has already been published...

'Asia Pacific Handbook of Contemporary Research' is a thorough collection of academic research on different areas. Please submit your book chapter to be included in the volume, 2. Details can be found on our website.

We invite you all to participate in our conferences where you can :

- 1- Strengthen your professional ties: this may lead to publications and job opportunities – an invaluable opportunity for post-PhD professionals.
- 2- Receive feedback and constructive critique on your ideas: benefit from the audience engaging with your content rather than focusing on your punctuation and references.
- 3- Refine your communication skills: move from your "isolating" research experience to a more collaborative and exchange of perspectives.
- 4- Participate in our conference and publish your research directly through the conference proceedings and journals. Don't miss this great opportunity to get your work out there!

All submitted papers will be peer reviewed and published in the conference proceeding to promote the prominent (and emerging) voices within your field of research.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

All of the accepted papers (i.e., high standard) can be published (i.e., conditions apply) without any extra fees in the following online journals:

- Asia Pacific Journal of Advanced Business and Social Studies (APJABSS) (ISSN: 2205-6033)
- Asia Pacific Journal of Contemporary Education and Communication Technology (APJCECT) (ISSN: 2205-6191)
